THE THEATRE

Idlehour Theatre

Girls, Girls, Girls! Not the familiar bathing beauties nor those of musical comedy variety, but girls, lovable, kissable girls are the feature of "The Beloved Cheater," the Robertson-Cole Special in which Lew Cody will star.

Some one has said that there are fifty-seven varieties of loveliness. Well, here are the whole fifty-seven exemplified by the master hand of the ace of hearts himself.

Lew Cody believes in beauty. This is perfectly apparent not only in the visions of feminine loveliness, but in the spectacular settings and gorgeous costumes. In keeping with these ideas, he has surrounded himself with a number of famous screen beauties among whom will be seen Eileen Percy and Doris Pawn.

"The Beloved Cheater" has a novel twist that will keep you guessing from the very first scene to the unexpected climax.

It will be shown at the Idlehour Monday and Tuesday.—adv.

Regent Theatre

The Regent Theatre is offering 610 goods laughs in "Lombardi Ltd." which appears there Sunday and Monday. Frederic Hatton, co-author with Fanny Hatton actually counted this number of laughs when the play was first presented on the stage. He stood in the wings and checked off every chuckle in the audience. The total was 610.

Thus the number of laughs for a cent may be figured from the price of admission, which is put at twenty-cents for this wonderful photo play by the Regent Theatre. It is a Bert Lytell special, and will give you a laugh every twelve seconds during the action of the play. Don't fail to see it and enjoy life.—adv.

"Should a woman Tell?" Regent Theatre, Thursday and Friday.—adv.

EVERY battery has to stand more or less pounding every day of its life, for even the best springs in the world can't absorb all the jolts. The effect of big and little bumps will be greatly lessened if you see to it that the battery is clamped tightly in place. Or ask us to see to it next time you come in.
